

Liverpool FC has released the following away ticket details for the Premier League fixture against Crystal Palace on Sunday January 23, 2022.

Location: Selhurst Park

Kick-off: 14:00

Allocation: 2864

Disabled allocation: 28 Wheelchair bays with associated personal assistants. Ambulant seating is also available
Visit the Accessibility Hub for full sale details.

Disabled allocation notes:

This is a reduction of one compared to allocation we received in the 2019/20 season. Crystal Palace have confirmed that the reduction is due to extra stewarding requirements to ensure that the wheelchair area is kept clear of other supporters who have been congregating around the bays.

Prices: Adult: £30
Over 65: £20
Full Time Student: £20
Young Adult (18-21): £20
Juniors (Under 17): £16

Price Notes:

Within the allocation are a number of restricted view tickets, which are reduced by £2 for adults and £1 for concessions.

Supporters in possession of concessionary tickets may be asked to provide proof of DOB at the turnstiles before entry is allowed.

SUPPORTERS WHO REQUIRE A WHEELCHAIR BAY:

General notes: Supporters not in possession of a ticket are urged not to travel.

Due to the ongoing pandemic, we understand that there are some fans who may not want to or cannot attend matches straight away. To ensure a fair ticket distribution process, we will not use any game credits from season 2021/22 as eligibility for ticket sales from season 2022/23 and beyond.

Ticket Credits: As previously stated, tickets purchased this season WILL NOT BE USED AS CREDITS IN FUTURE SEASONS. This policy is still in place and will not be changed this season.

Due to the ongoing pandemic, we do not want supporters to feel obliged to attend matches when they do not feel comfortable doing so.
